By becoming a member of Belly Fire Farm, Inc.'s CSA, I agree to commit to the full fall season, picking up my produce on my designated day and times; I understand that if I miss my pick up, my produce will be donated to the local food pantry if other arrangements aren't made. I understand that this is a season long commitment between myself and Belly Fire Farm and I will not stop any payments due to Belly Fire Farm once this enrollment contract is received by Belly Fire Farm.

By purchasing a market share from Belly Fire Farm, Inc', I agree to spend my market share in the growing season (June-Nov) of this year. I will spend the Market Share at Saturday markets or the honor system. If I would like a special order a specific quantity of vegetables, I know I need to call at least week ahead to talk to Belly Fire Farm about availability. All produce is seasonal.
